

THE 2018 AUSTIN HARRINGTON COUNSELING LECTURES

TOWARDS A
REFORMATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY

FEATURING

DR. ERIC JOHNSON, PhD

- 9am      Welcome and Introduction of Lectures
Dr. Dan Zink, Interim Director of the Counseling Department and Professor of Applied Theology of Counseling
- Welcome and Introduction of Dr. Eric Johnson
Dr. Richard Winter, Professor Emeritus of Counseling
- 9:15am    Lecture #1 – Understanding the Relation between Christianity and Psychology
- 10:30am   Lecture #2 – The Supremacy of God in the Cure of Souls
- 11:30am   Lunch Break
The Edwards Hall Community Center on campus is open for lunch. They have sandwiches to purchase or tables for enjoying your brown-bag lunch. Many area restaurants are within a 5-minute drive.
- 1:00pm    Lecture #3 – A Christian Framework for Psychopathology
- 2:15pm    Lecture #4 – Psychotherapy and Counseling in Christ
- 3:15pm    Q & A

Thank you for joining us today! A recording of today's lectures will be posted on Covenant Seminary's website at www.covenantseminary.edu/resources. Registered attendees will be emailed when the recordings are available.

If you would like more information about our Master of Arts in Counseling program, please contact us at admissions@covenantseminary.edu.